

Applying for Study

Information for submitting an application for study participation.

A. Inclusion criteria:

a. Male or female

b. Age: Over three years of age and under the age of twelve.

c. At least a two-month history of taking a multi-vitamin/mineral supplement, and continuing to take that during the study.

d. No changes in medication, supplements, diet, or behavioral interventions during the study

e. No previous use of liquid zeolite.

f. Not taking any prescribed chelators for a period of at least one month prior to entry into the study.

B. Exclusion criteria:

a. Inability to obtain informed consent from subject or subject's parent or guardian

b. Pregnant or nursing female, prisoner

c. Medical contraindications including subjects taking prescribed lithium or who are receiving chemotherapy.

d. Known genetic defect (e.g. Fragile X, Down Syndrome, Tuberous Sclerosis, etc.).

e. Significant prematurity at birth (less than 32 weeks gestation); birthweight significantly below normal for gestational age (SGA- small for gestational age); or diagnosis of cerebral palsy.

To learn more about the study, first register as a member or login here, then go to the submission information page.